Subject Reports Needed Re: HAVA Title I Funds

Dear Ed:

This follows up on our phone conversation today, in which I told you that there appear to be some problems with the report Alabama submitted to GSA on the HAVA Title I funds.

In a July 2003 letter to the States, the General Services Administration (GSA) noted that the first reports on HAVA Title I "early money" were due to the General Services Administration on January 21, 2004. Here is the pertinent excerpt from that letter:

By January 21, 2004, States will provide reports to GSA on actual expenditures as of December 31, 2003. Each funding recipient will be required to submit verification of actual purchases and expenditures. States should report using Standard Form 269 for Sections 101 and 102 categories. A separate form should be used for each section. Information regarding actual funds expended will be reconciled against funding provided. GSA will provide this information to the Election Assistance Commission once it becomes operational, and reporting dates are subject to change by the Commission.

GSA faxed a copy of Alabama's report to the EAC today. Unfortunately, it appears that this report attempted to combine the reporting of the 101 and 102 funds. (This is my best guess after looking at the total dollar amount reported, although the figure does not equal the combined amounts that GSA reported disbursing to the State.)

I have been asked to pursue Title I reporting anomalies, therefore, I ask you to have someone in your State complete one report on SF269 for the HAVA Section 101 funds ($4,989,605) and another for the Section 102 funds ($51,076) received by the State last year. Please fax it to me at 202-566-3127 as soon as possible, and send the original by mail to me at the address noted below. If you need a copy of Standard Form 269, you can access that form through the following web page:

http://www.whitehouse.gov/omb/grants/grants_forms.html

Alternatively, I can fax a copy of the form to you. Please note that your report should show the financial activity for the period ending December 31, 2003, as requested by GSA. Please also provide back-up information, as noted by the GSA request, verifying actual purchases and expenditures.

Thank you for helping me out on this. If you have any questions, just let me know.

Regards,

Peggy Sims
